

Campus Overview

- Marine Mechanics Institute (MMI-Orlando) opened in 1973.
- With 13 classrooms and ample space for hands-on training, the 45,595-square-foot training facility can accommodate up to 700 students.
- MMI is on the 2014 Military Friendly Schools® list published by Victory Media in recognition of efforts to ensure the success of America's military service members, veterans and spouses as students.
- There are approximately 50 employees at the MMI-Orlando campus.

Specialized Training

- At MMI-Orlando, students receive real-world training and work directly on the industry's latest models to learn troubleshooting, diagnostics, service and repair for a wide range of marine mechanical systems.
- With a combination of classroom instruction, demonstrations and hands-on lab work, MMI-Orlando's comprehensive curriculum introduces students to four- and two-stroke outboards, sterndrives, rigging, fuel and lube systems, and electrical and diesel marine engines.
- The 51-week program begins every three weeks and offers a flexible class schedule. Many students take advantage of MMI-Orlando's career assistance program and work while attending classes.
- The Marine Technician Specialist program offers specialized factory training through manufacturer partners Mercury Marine, Suzuki Marine, Yamaha Marine, Honda Marine and Volvo Penta.
 - Honda Marine: Students learn about the four-stroke outboard and ignition systems using the manufacturer's special outboard tools.
 - Mercury Marine: Outboard and engine training prepares students to become entry-level technicians in the dealer network.
 - Suzuki Marine: The program includes two-stroke and four-stroke engine training using the company's specialty outboard tools.
 - Volvo Penta: Students become familiar with the manufacturer's diesel, outboard and diesel/gasoline sterndrive engines.
 - Yamaha Marine: During the program, students become proficient in inspecting, maintaining and troubleshooting the fuel, oil-injection and engine systems of the company's marine products.

Accreditation

- MMI-Orlando is accredited by the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges, which is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.

Community Champions

- Employees and their families as well as students are actively involved in the community. MMI-Orlando staff and students roll up their sleeves several times a year to donate blood.
- Employees participate in many events for students and the community, including Student Appreciation Day, Hot Import Nights and Powerpalooza.
- Employees participate in A Gift for Teaching's backpack stuffing events to provide underserved children with school supplies.
