

Laurinda Pang

President, International and Global Accounts
Management

Laurinda Pang brings more than 25 years of telecom experience to CenturyLink as President of International and Global Accounts Management. In this role, she is responsible for the company's top 200 global enterprise customers and for the business and operations results in Asia Pacific, Latin America, Europe, Middle East and Africa.

Prior, Laurinda served as Regional President of North America and Asia Pacific for Level 3 Communications, where she was responsible for overall business results of the region. Previous roles include Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer, Chief Human Resources Officer, Vice President of Customer Experience Re-engineering and other key leadership roles. Over the course of her career, she has been instrumental in driving significant business initiatives and the development of corporate strategies.

She serves on the Board of Directors for Acacia Communications, Inc. (NASDAQ: ACIA) and the Executive Advisory Board for Daniels College of Business, University of Denver, as well as various non-profit boards, including the CenturyLink Clark M. Williams Foundation, and A Precious Child, as a trustee.

Laurinda holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science from Pennsylvania State University.