¹The data for the different institutions was gathered using College Scorecard information for schools in the following categories:

Type of Institution	Number of Institutions	Description	Carnegie Classification Codes	Control
Two-Year Public Colleges	898	Associate's Colleges-Public	1–9	Public
Four-Year Liberal Arts Colleges	243	Bachelor's Colleges-Arts & Science	21
Doctoral Universities	331	Doctoral Universities	15–17

²Ten-year median earnings are calculated by determining the median earnings of former students, who received federal financial aid and regardless of whether they graduated, at 10 years after entering the school. Earnings are defined in the College Scorecard as the sum of wages and deferred compensation from all W-2 forms received for each individual plus self-employment earnings.

The most recent graduation rate for UTI Avondale reported on the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) for students who began in 2012-13 is 59% (first-time, full-time graduation rate within 150% of program length). The most recent national consolidated graduation rate reported in 2015 using our accreditor's (ACCSC) standards across all 12 UTI campuses was approximately 63% (all graduates within 150% of program length). The graduation rate for two-year public colleges excludes students who transfer and graduate from a four-year college.

⁴The earnings data shown in the College Scorecard for UTI of Arizona represent earnings for the four campuses that were operating in 2001-2003 (Arizona, Rancho Cucamonga, NASCAR Technical Institute and Glendale Heights) that are included in the Office of Postsecondary Education Identifier (OPEID) assigned to UTI of Arizona. The OPEID number is assigned by the U.S. Department of Education to identify schools that have program participation agreements (PPAs) so its students are eligible to participate in federal student financial assistance programs under Title IV regulations.
