

ANNUAL DAY OF SERVICE FACT SHEET

What: On October 12, BECU will close its doors so nearly 2,400 employees can participate remotely in its Annual Day of Service. Employees will assemble more than 25,000 kits from home that nine nonprofit organizations in Washington and South Carolina will distribute to the individuals and groups they serve. The kits vary by each organization and include personal care, baby items, school supplies or snack packs.

Who: Nearly 2,400 BECU employees will assemble more than 25,000 kits for these nonprofit partners:

- FareStart (Western Washington)
- Food Lifeline (King County)
- Giving Back Packs (Spokane, Washington)
- Housing Hope/HopeWorks (Snohomish County)
- One80 Place (South Carolina)
- Raising Girls (Pierce County)
- Tukwila Children's Foundation (King County)
- United Way of King County (King County)
- Vanessa Behan Crisis Nursery (Spokane, Washington)

Where: The kits will be assembled from home while BECU employees also connect with their work teams digitally through video chat.

Why: Traditionally, BECU employees teach financial education to thousands of high school students as part of its Annual Day of Service on Indigenous Peoples' Day. With employees unable to visit local area high schools this year due to COVID-19, BECU developed a new approach that provides employees the opportunity to serve their communities, while also supporting organizations that are helping those impacted by the pandemic.
