

BECU CARES DAY FACT SHEET

- What: On October 10, BECU's doors are closed for Indigenous Peoples' Day and nearly 2,700 employees are participating remotely in its eighth annual BECU Cares Day. Employees are assembling around 27,000 kits from home that 10 nonprofit organizations in Washington and South Carolina will distribute to the individuals and groups they serve. The kits vary by each partner organization and include items to support personal care, home cleaning, education and more.
- Who: Nearly 2,700 BECU employees are creating around 27,000 kits for 10 nonprofit partners, including:
- Alimentando al Pueblo (King County)
 - Asian Counseling and Referral Service \(ACRS\) (King County)
 - Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Lowcountry (Charleston, S.C.)
 - Chief Seattle Club (King County)
 - College Success Foundation (Greater Seattle)
 - Housing Hope (Snohomish County)
 - Junior Achievement of Washington (Washington)
 - Raising Girls (South Puget Sound)
 - Rise Above (Washington)
 - Spokane Neighborhood Action Partners \(SNAP\) (Spokane, Wash.)
- Where: The kits are being assembled from home while BECU employees also connect with their work teams digitally through video chat.
- Why: In years' past, BECU employees taught financial education to thousands of high school students as part of its annual day of service on Indigenous Peoples' Day. Due to the continued positive response BECU received from providing supply kits to nonprofits in 2020 and 2021, the credit union implemented a similar approach for this year's event.

- About BECU: BECU is federally insured by NCUA. With more than 1.3million members and over $30.2 billion in assets, BECU is the largest not-for-profit credit union in Washington and one of the top five financial cooperatives in the country. As a member-owned credit union, BECU is focused on helping increase the financial well-being of its members and communities through better rates, fewer fees, community partnerships and financial education. The credit union currently operates more than 50 locations in Washington and two financial centers in South Carolina. For more information, visit www.becu.org.
