

Beverly Anderson President and Chief Executive Officer

Beverly Anderson has more than 30 years of experience in the financial services industry and became the President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of BECU in December 2022. As CEO of the fourth largest credit union in the United States, she is responsible for all aspects of leading an organization with nearly 1.4 million members and $28.8 billion in assets. Beverly's core areas of focus include strategy development and sustainable growth, overseeing daily operational activities, and fostering BECU's culture of promoting the financial well-being of its members and communities.

Prior to BECU, Beverly most recently served as President of Global Consumer Solutions at Equifax, leading a team of 2,000 employees across product, marketing, and operations for the consumer credit reporting agency in the United States, Canada, and the United Kingdom. Previously, Beverly led in executive roles defining and executing growth strategies at Wells Fargo and American Express.

Beverly's career and leadership recognitions include American Banker's "23 People Who Will Matter in Banking in 2023," Black Enterprise's "Most Powerful Women in Corporate America," CardLinx's "Top 20 Women in Digital Commerce," and the Kenneth A. Powell Award for Professional Achievement from the Harvard Business School African-American Alumni Association.

Beyond the office, Beverly is dedicated to giving back to her community, serving on the boards of Expedia Group, Accion, Sword Health, and the Harvard Business School African-American Alumni Association. She has also served as chairperson of the Card Policy Council of the American Bankers Association and board chair of the Council of Urban Professionals.

Beverly holds a Master of Business Administration with distinction from Harvard Business School and graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in business from Florida A&M University.
