

Kellogg Company Corporate Political Expenditures for 2020

Kellogg Company did not contribute to any candidates, political parties, or political committees. The company also did not make any independent expenditure contributions to super PACs, 527 organizations, or 501(c)(4) organizations.

Kellogg Company contributed $125,000 to Fair and Equal's Michigan's effort to qualify a ballot initiative to provide protections against discrimination for LGBTQ persons.

Below is a list of trade associations and/or 501(c)(4) groups to which Kellogg Company's dues/payments were \geq $50,000 in 2020, and the amount used for political activities (as reported to us by the organization).

TRADE/INDUSTRY GROUP	NON-DEDUCTIBLE AMOUNT
Consumers Brands Association	$146,727
Association of Food and Dairy Retailers, Wholesalers, and Manufacturers	$44,285
Association of National Advertisers	$12,625
American Bakers Association	$1,787

Kellogg Company's political contributions during the reporting period were all made in accordance with its Corporate Civic Engagement Policy.