

Kellogg Company Corporate Political Expenditures for 2022

Kellogg Company did not contribute to any candidates, political parties, or political committees. The company also did not make any independent expenditure contributions to super PACs, 527 organizations, or 501(c)(4) organizations.

Some of our trade associations utilized a portion of our dues to engage in their own lobbying activities. Below is a list of trade associations and/or 501(c)(4) groups to which Kellogg Company's dues/payments were  $\geq$  \$50,000 in 2022, and the amount used for political activities (as reported to us by the organization).

TRADE/INDUSTRY GROUP	NON-DEDUCTIBLE AMOUNT
Consumer Brands Association	$64,000
Association of Food and Dairy Retailers, Wholesalers, and Manufacturers	$38,386
National Association of Manufacturers	$15,000
The Food Industry Association (FMI)	$5,712

Kellogg Company's political contributions during the reporting period were all made in accordance with its Corporate Civic Engagement Policy.