

Kellogg Company Corporate Political Expenditures for 2021

Kellogg Company did not contribute to any candidates, political parties, or political committees. The company also did not make any independent expenditure contributions to super PACs, 527 organizations, or 501(c)(4) organizations.

Below is a list of trade associations and/or 501(c)(4) groups to which Kellogg Company's dues/payments were \geq $50,000 in 2021, and the amount used for political activities (as reported to us by the organization).

| TRADE/INDUSTRY GROUP | NON-DEDUCTIBLE AMOUNT |
|---|------------------------------|
| Association of Food and Dairy Retailers, Wholesalers, and Manufacturers | $38,572 |
| Consumers Brands Association | $36,990 |
| National Association of Manufacturers | $15,000 |
| The Food Industry Association (FMI) | $9,209 |

| 501(c)(4) ORGANIZATIONS | NON-DEDUCTIBLE AMOUNT |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------|
| TRGroup, Inc. | $67,500 |

Kellogg Company's political contributions during the reporting period were all made in accordance with its Corporate Civic Engagement Policy.