2018 Planning & Progress Study

The Makings of the Middle Class

Northwestern Mutual is the marketing name for The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company (NM), Milwaukee, WI and its subsidiaries.
The 2018 Planning & Progress Study seeks to provide unique insights into U.S. adults’ attitudes and behaviors toward money, financial decision-making, and the broader landscape issues impacting people’s long-term financial security.

The study is based on an online survey of 2,003 U.S. adults age 18+ conducted from March 7-19, 2018 (and an oversample of 601 interviews with U.S. Millennials age 18-34 which has been combined with the general population of those age 18-34 when featuring this group).

Data were weighted to be representative of the U.S. population (age 18+) based on Census targets for education, age/gender, race/ethnicity, region and household income.

Background
The majority of Americans still deem themselves middle class

However, the number has declined slightly from 2017.

QMC4a. Do you consider yourself part of the middle class?
Assets and attributes are considered the key metrics of the middle class...

Americans cited both assets and attributes as the defining characteristics of the middle class. Notably, this year more people opted for assets than attributes.

QMC1. Do you define the middle class based on a certain level of income or assets?

QMC2. Do you define the middle class based on having a certain lifestyle/perspective?
The majority of Americans feel that $50,000 to just under $100,000 in income/assets define the middle class as do attributes like work ethic and homeownership.

Income/assets

- $1 - $49,999: 26%
- $50,000 - $99,999: 52%
