

Sling TV Fact Sheet

What is Sling?

As a leading, Emmy® Award-winning streaming service, Sling instantly delivers live and on-demand television to compatible internet-connected devices. With unmatched flexibility and choice, Sling is a cost-effective, app-based alternative to traditional cable and satellite TV, and helps its customers save hundreds of dollars a year, without any hidden fees or long-term contracts.

Sling offers the most popular live news, sports entertainment and kids programming, available through monthly subscriptions starting at $35 per month. And through its genre-based "Extras," Sling customers are empowered to pick their personal channel lineup.

What services does Sling offer?

Customers can choose from two domestic programming base services, Sling Orange and Sling Blue, or choose to subscribe to a combination of base services to get a complete channel offering. Additionally, customers can choose to personalize their lineup with Extras, premium and à la carte channels, pay-per-view events, international content, movies on-demand and enjoy a suite of free content.

Base Services

- Sling Orange: A base service that allows users to stream on one device at a time, in or outside of the home, starting at $35 per month. It offers more than 30 channels, including ESPN, Disney, Freeform, HGTV, CNN and more.
- Sling Blue: A base service that allows users to stream on up to three devices simultaneously, in or outside of the home, starting at $35 per month. It offers more than 40 channels, including FOX (select markets), NBC (select markets), Fox News, CNN, MSNBC, NFL Network, Discovery, FS1, HGTV and more.
- Sling Orange and Blue: Subscribe to both base services to receive 47 channels for $50 per month, with a multi-service discount.
- Sling Free: Anyone can access free content from Sling with regularly rotating titles. Consumers may also purchase Pay-Per-View events and select channels à la carte and watch them through the Sling app, no subscription required.

Add Ons

- Extras: Sling offers seven genre-based channel bundles — Comedy Extra, Heartland Extra, Hollywood Extra, Kids Extra, Lifestyle Extra, News Extra and Sports Extra. Extras are available as add-ons to Sling Orange and / or Blue base services and start at $6 per month each.
