

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30, 2017 – 6:15 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Dense Fog Advisories are in place in areas to our southeast, but I think we'll manage just fine here this morning. Expect a fair amount of sunshine until the afternoon when a weak cold front will be approaching Minneapolis from the north. Scattered showers and storms will be trying to form along this front. Any activity nearing us would do so from mid-afternoon on. I'm keeping the chances of a shower or storm here at 30%. However, this front is showing signs of slowing just to our south, and so some showers linger later this evening, and cloudiness could linger into early tomorrow morning. High temperatures this afternoon near 80. A little cooler tomorrow with a high near 75. Tonight's low near 60 degrees. Winds will be light and from the northwest this morning, switching to a northeasterly wind later in the afternoon. Tropical Storm Harvey weakens to a depression today and slowly moves northeast. Rains come to an end in Texas.
