Trish Johnson

Q. So all the familiar names from last year got back in the mix of it today. What was different today than yesterday?

TRISH JOHNSON: Nothing really, to be fair. The course was possibly playing a little bit easier, pins were a little bit easier than yesterday. No, I mean, not being funny, you expect the people that play full time, if you like, to be in the mix, if they are, and Alfie obviously doesn't play full-time, but she's still a top-class player. There's a lot of golf to be played. But yeah, you caught me at a pretty disappointing finish, so probably not in the best of spirits. But there's two days to go, and I can't putt or chip any worse than that, so it can only get better.

Q. Do you think that the weekend will be -- par is going to be a good score on the weekend?

TRISH JOHNSON: Very much depends. Depends if they water the greens, where they put the pins. What's leading? 2-over. I mean, if Alfie shoots level par, possibly, but I think you've got to get back to par, I think, to win. That will be the aim.

Q. That's what Laura was saying her goal is is to get back to level.

TRISH JOHNSON: Yeah, I mean, I was 1-under today with three to play, and make another birdie I'm back to -- yeah, that's what you're sort of aiming for. At 5-over, that's a long way off, but as I said, my short game can only be better, it can't be any worse.
