TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 2019 – 6:45 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Last night's thundershower that crossed the area from 6:25-7:25 p.m. produced 0.09 inches of rain, but we will dry out this morning with some clouds streaking through the area and temperatures climbing from the 60s this morning to near 80 by lunch time. Winds from the southwest will increase to near 10 mph with gusts of 16-20 mph before lunch. This afternoon will be windy and warm with more sun than clouds and a high of 84. Expect winds of 10-15 mph from the southwest to west with a few gusts to 28 mph possible. Tonight will be a bit cooler with winds diminishing in the evening. The low will be from the mid 40s in sheltered valleys to the lower 50s by Stroh Road. Expect sunshine and a few clouds and a breezy afternoon tomorrow with a high in the lower 80s. Thursday will become windy with clouds mixing in during the afternoon, followed by a chance for showers and maybe thunder towards evening and for the first half of Thursday night. Slightly cooler but windier conditions are expected Friday, when winds may gust past 30 mph in the afternoon.
