WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2019 – 6:45 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Sunshine to start the day will mix with building clouds this afternoon as temperatures this morning climb into the 60s then 70s and then reach an afternoon high of 80. An isolated shower or storm cannot be ruled out later this afternoon, mostly from 3:30-6:30 p.m. but chances are low at 20 percent for any measurable precipitation as moisture available is limited. Southerly winds will increase to 5-10 mph this morning and 10-14 mph this afternoon, with gusts of 25 mph or so possible later in the afternoon. Tonight will be fair with a low in the low to mid 50s and a southerly breeze diminishing overnight. Expect warm weather and increasing wind tomorrow with sunny skies to start, then clouds mixing in and a 20 percent chance for a shower or storm later in the afternoon, with a slightly higher chance for showers in the evening. Tomorrow's high will reach 84. Winds from the southwest will turn quite gusty much like they did yesterday, with a high gust to near 30 mph possible.
