

SUNDAY, MAY 9, 2021 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

The wind is more noticeable to start this morning along the coast and it is forecast to be a tad breezier, to almost windy, today with a good portion of the day having speeds in the 10-16 mph range and gusts 16-22 mph. This change in wind direction is also bringing back the humidity since our dewpoints are already in the mid 60s and will probably reach 70 degrees at some point today. Therefore highs in the low 80s will feel more like the mid to upper 80s midday. Sunshine will mix with clouds at times today with a 20% chance of a passing shower/sprinkle this morning and a 20% chance of a shower or storm inland as we head into this afternoon.
