

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2021 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Sunshine today will mix with some high clouds and some lower level clouds at times. Humidity will feel similar to yesterday as dewpoints stay in the 60s. Temps will be very warm this afternoon in the upper 80s with winds light and predominantly out of the west before shifting southwest this afternoon. A touch warmer and slightly less cloud cover on Wednesday with temps nearing the 90 degree mark. The wind and humidity will be fairly similar on Wednesday again making it feel even more like we are in the 90s at times. We will have a 20% chance of a shower on Thursday as a weak boundary moves south along the coast of the Carolinas. Mainly though just look for a return back to periods of clouds and sunshine with highs in the upper 80s.
