

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 2022 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Starting off under clear skies, we look to ward off shower activity later. With a north wind blowing to 15 mph, temperatures remain capped at or under 80 degrees this afternoon. The influence of a storm system near Boston will sling moisture over the region, leaving us with a 60% chance of showers between 3 - 5 PM. Overnight, cloudy conditions trickle overhead with little to no wind keeping temperatures in the mid 60s. Weather improves Thursday, with clearing skies as the day wears on. Temperatures near 85 degrees on Thursday jump up to near 90 degrees on Friday as dry, sunny weather re-claims Paramus.
