

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 2022 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Today's weather is dry, but we'll see a healthy amount of cloud cover throughout the day. An eastern breeze off of Lake Michigan will contribute to daytime highs at or under 70 degrees, though gusts remain under 15 mph. Tonight, we will cool into the mid 50s quickly. Upper level cloudiness looks to save us from morning fog on Thursday, and we should warm up nicely with the help of a stiff southern breeze. Daily highs and humidity increase into the weekend, setting up rain chances as soon as sunset Friday.
