

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 2022 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Some weak showers may give us a small rinse this morning, but overall look for a partly to mostly cloudy final round. Winds will pick up from the southwest once again, gusting around 20 mph by lunchtime. The greater risk of today's showers and thunderstorms comes in the second half of the afternoon towards sunset. A brief lull before midnight should not last too long before thunderstorms become a likelihood early Sunday morning. Have an enjoyable final today, and thank you for joining the rollercoaster ride of weather this week.
