Matthew McClean Wins the 2022 Championship

The winner of the 41st U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship was ... the Republic of Ireland.

This island nation of 5.1 million (7 million when you count Northern Ireland) was going to produce its first champion in a USGA amateur competition no matter who prevailed in the 36-hole championship match, which concluded on Saturday – 1½ days later than expected – with 29-year-old optometrist Matthew McClean, of Belfast, holding the Robert T. Jones Memorial Trophy, thanks to a 3-and-1 victory over countryman and close friend Hugh Foley, 25, of Dublin.

With the victory also comes the spoils. McClean now is exempt into the 2023 U.S. Open at The Los Angeles (Calif.) Country Club and will receive a likely invitation to next April's Masters Tournament. He also is the second USGA champion of 2022 from Ireland, following Pádraig Harrington, who claimed the U.S. Senior Open in June at Saucon Valley Country Club in Bethlehem, Pa. Northern Ireland natives Graeme McDowell (2010) and Rory McIlroy (2011) won U.S. Open titles in consecutive years. They were only the second and third players from Ireland to even reach a USGA final, following Valerie Hasset in 1998 (U.S. Senior Women's Amateur).

"Yeah, fantastic," said McClean, who celebrated the victory with his caddie Jack Enea and girlfriend Kate Jones. "Sort of probably hasn't sunk in just yet. It's been a very long week, but I'm sure once we sort of sit down this evening, it'll sort of sink in a wee bit more, but yeah, it's unbelievable really."

Since Sept. 5 when the two departed Dublin on a trans-Atlantic flight to Chicago, McClean and Foley have been inseparable, sharing rental cars and private housing as well as playing together in practice rounds preparing for their first USGA championship experiences. For the past week, they've stayed at the home of Colgate, Wis., resident Dan Benedum, who wound up serving as Foley's caddie. Enea got on McClean's bag through Benedum, with whom he plays golf at Ozaukee Country Club in Mequon.

But when both advanced to the championship match on Friday, the social chatter was put on hold as they battled to see which of them would become the second international champion in U.S. Mid-Amateur history. Lukas Michel, of Australia, won in 2019. McClean and Foley shared a steak dinner on Friday night following the first 18 holes of the championship match, which McClean led, 2 up.

McClean, No. 120 in the World Amateur Golf Ranking®/WAGR®, and Foley, No. 195 in the WAGR, wanted a strong result this week to bolster their chances of representing Great Britain and Ireland in next September's Walker Cup Match on the Old Course at St. Andrews.

McClean already has had a head start in that quest, representing GB&I in the 2022 St. Andrews Trophy competition against Continental Europe and competing for Ireland in the recently completed World Amateur Team Championship in France (team tied for 19th). McClean also posted strong finishes in a pair of prestigious amateur competitions in England: the Brabazon Trophy (third) and Lytham Trophy (tied for sixth), and he lost in a playoff at the Irish Open Amateur, a stroke-play event.

Foley was hoping the 12-plus-hour break between rounds would give him a chance to reset for the second 18 of the final, but he struggled through the first six holes, making bogeys on Nos. 19 (hole was tied), 20 and 24 to fall 4 down. A 50-degree wedge from 110 yards at the par-5 25th set up a winning birdie, but he didn't win another hole until the 31st, which started a string of three consecutive birdies to tighten what was turning into a McClean rout.

He did have a bizarre occurrence on the par-3 27th hole when his bunker shot flew into a sprinkler head and never bounced out. He received a free drop but faced a 35-footer for par rather than a much shorter putt. The bogey put McClean 4 up.

McClean holed an 8-footer for birdie on the par-4 30th to increase his margin to 5 up with six to play, only to see his close friend hit some marvelous shots on the next three holes. Foley's tee shot on the par-3 31st stopped 7 feet short of the hole, and his exquisite pitch from below the green on the par-5 32nd was perfectly executed as he used the slope behind the green to sling his ball to 18 inches. Then on the 369-yard 33rd hole, Foley's approach stopped 9 feet from the flagstick, and he calmly converted to cut the deficit to 2 down.

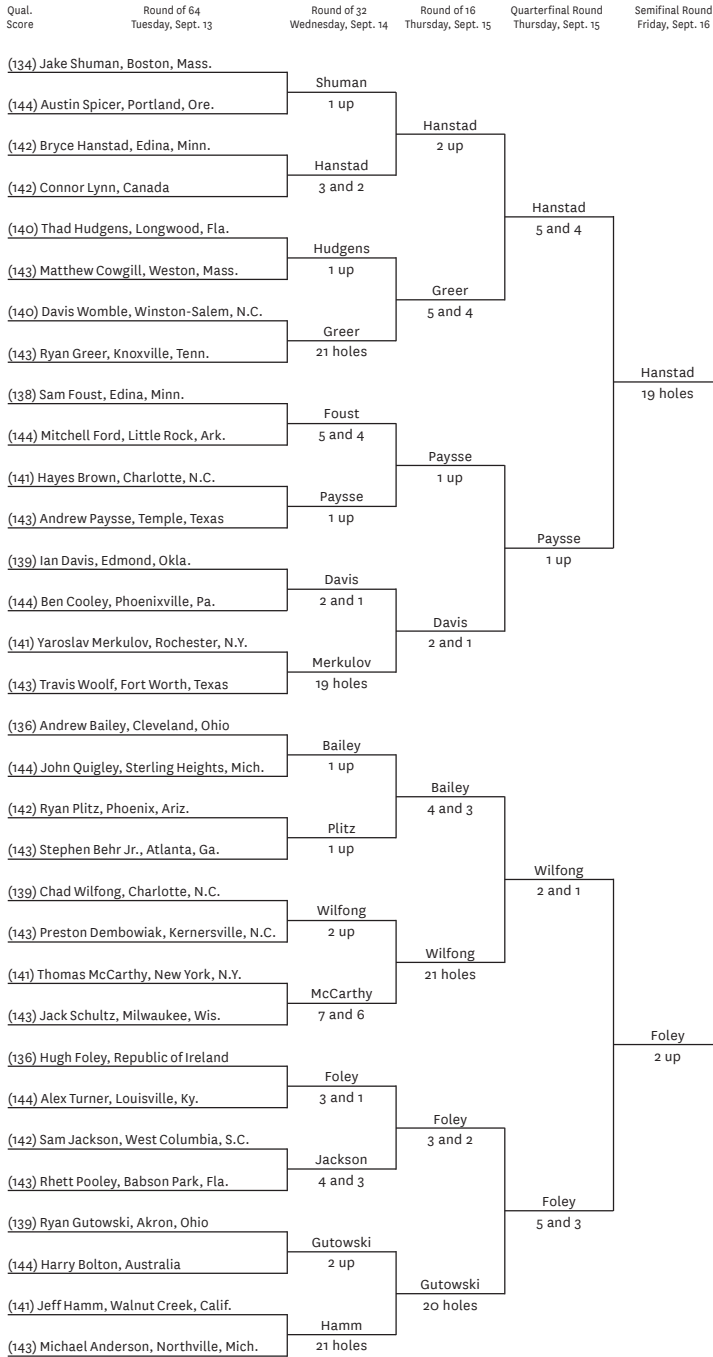

"It was hard to sort of hang in there, but I didn't really do a huge amount wrong," said McClean. "I just sort of felt if I kept on doing what I was doing, hopefully he wouldn't birdie the last six holes against me. That was the plan, and thankfully it worked out in the end."

McClean thought he won on the par-3 34th hole as his 30-foot putt caught the left edge and spun out. It was only a momentary delay in his crowning achievement. He reached the 35th hole with a brilliant 7-iron approach, and when Foley missed the green from the right rough and failed to get up and down from thick greenside rough, the match was over.

"I made a late charge there, decent back nine," said Foley, who became the first player since Darren Clarke in 1990 to win the North of Ireland and South of Ireland amateur championships. "I thought maybe 3- or 4-under back nine might have a chance, but he held on great. That birdie on 12 was really, really good. Almost put the nail in the coffin. That's when I had a little bit of a run and freed up. But he held up great with those pars there at the finish. He deserved it today."

Notable - Runner-up Hugh Foley received a silver medal, an exemption into the next three U.S. Mid-Amateurs and an exemption into the 2023 U.S. Amateur.

Championship History

In 1981, the USGA inaugurated its first new championship for amateurs in 19 years, the U.S. Mid-Amateur. The Mid-Amateur, for amateur golfers of at least 25 years of age, provides a formal national championship for the post-college amateur, for whom the game is truly an avocation.

Before the arrival of the Mid-Amateur, the post-collegiate player could compete in the Amateur Championship, sometimes successfully, but these older amateurs faced greater odds. While they fit their golf around their work and families, they were most often competing against college golfers, for whom the game is close to a full-time activity.

Only about 40 percent of those who qualify for the U.S. Amateur each year are at least 25, although several have been quite successful. For example, Bob Lewis Jr., then 35, reached the Amateur final in 1980, and the semifinals in 1981 and 1986. Jay Sigel won consecutive Amateur titles in 1982 and 1983 (at ages 38 and 39, respectively), and then added the Mid-Amateur title in 1983, 1985 and 1987. In 1986, Buddy Alexander, 33, a reinstated amateur, won the U.S. Amateur and in 1993, 41-year-old John Harris won the Amateur. Harris remains the last mid-amateur to win the U.S. Amateur.

In general, however, most post-collegiate amateurs found themselves at a disadvantage competing against college golfers. Thus, the Mid-Amateur Championship was born.

Played at the Bellerive Country Club in St. Louis, the first Mid-Amateur drew 1,638 entries in 1981. The field included three former Amateur champions: Gary Cowan (1966, 1971), Marvin "Vinny" Giles III (1972) and Fred Ridley (1975). Jim Holtgrieve, 33, of Des Peres, Mo., defeated fellow Walker Cup Team member Bob Lewis Jr., 37, of Warren, Ohio, in the final, 2 up. Holtgrieve and Lewis each later captained a pair of USA Walker Cup Teams.

Nathan Smith is the only four-time U.S. Mid-Amateur champion. He won his first title in 2003 after his opponent, Bryan Norton, withdrew due to injury after nine holes. Smith took back-to-back victories in 2009 and 2010, and won his fourth title in 2012, becoming just the 15th person to win the same USGA championship on at least four occasions.

In 1983, Sigel became the first golfer in 53 years to win two USGA championships in the same year when he added the Mid-Amateur Championship to the U.S. Amateur he had won just 32 days earlier. Sigel became the Mid-Amateur's first two-time winner when he again captured the championship in 1985. Sigel won his third Mid-Amateur in 1987. Combined with his two U.S. Amateur titles (1982, 1983), Sigel won five USGA championships.

In 1987's first qualifying round, Don Bliss made holes-in-one on the eighth and 10th holes at Brook Hollow Golf Club in Dallas, Texas. Bliss is the only player to score two holes-in-one in one round of a USGA championship.

The U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship has continued to grow in popularity and in 1989 topped 3,000 entries for the first time. In its short history, the championship's unique age qualification has inspired similar tournaments throughout the country and there are now mid-amateur events in nearly every state. The Mid-Amateur also has helped several players earn berths to the USA Walker Cup Team. Sigel, Smith, Tim Jackson, Scott Harvey, Todd White, Danny Green, George Zahringer, William Hoffer and Stewart Hagestad are among those selected to represent their country off the strength of performances in the Mid-Amateur.

For the first time in USGA championship history, two courses were used in a 36-hole championship match in the 2016 final between Hagestad and Harvey. The match at Stonewall, in Elverson, Pa., started with 18 holes on the par-70, 6,711-yard North Course, while the second 18 was played on the par-70, 6,870-yard Old Course.

Beginning in 2017, the U.S. Mid-Amateur champion received a full exemption from qualifying into the following year's U.S. Open field. Matt Parziale, a firefighter from Brockton, Mass., became the first player to earn that exemption.

In 2020, the U.S. Mid-Amateur was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
