[Mack Edwards]

[Even-par 70]

(on his round today)

[MACK EDWARDS]: “I was pumped up to start the day. A great day yesterday, but you need to have short-term memory and I came out a little nervous. I made six birdies and shot even, so it was a grind of a day.”

(on what he’s proven to himself with his position after two days)

[MACK EDWARDS]: “Sure, I don’t have the resume of Blades Brown or Tyler Watts, but hopefully this is the start of something good. I’ve played some solid golf in recent months and it’s feeling good now. If I can go out and play like this when I don’t really have my good stuff, I was still able to make a good amount of birdies to keep it at a respectable number.”
