

THURSDAY, JULY 25, 2024 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Splendid weather on tap for today with lower humidity and cooler temps slowly warming in the upper 70s. We would be quite unlucky if a random sprinkle made it here early today, otherwise dry weather and slightly breezy northerly winds during the afternoon. Mainly clear tonight and unseasonably cooler in the mid 50s, but you will not need that jacket too long as we have our sights on sunny and warmer temps in the low 80s for the afternoon. High pressure maintains control for one more day Saturday with a warming trend heating us up a few more degrees in the mid 80s. Relish this beautiful summer weather for SE Michigan!
