

FRIDAY, JULY 26, 2024 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

What a showing from Mother Nature with mainly sunny skies, lowering humidity and temps in the low 80s. Winds will be quite weak out of the east, pushing a gust to the low teens at times. High pressure now overhead the central Great Lakes region will extend this dry weather pattern into the weekend, so expect perfect golfing weather to persist. We will however move into a warming trend as that high pressure eventually slides east of us into Sunday, bringing temps through the mid 80s and into the upper 80s. Enjoy!
