

SATURDAY, JULY 27, 2024 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Another cool and calm beginning to our day with temps “chilling” in the low 60s. Sunshine will brighten our day with some high clouds sought in the distance throughout the day. Winds will gently pick up easterly, eventually southeasterly along with our temps warming to the mid 80s. Despite the low humidity, it can feel quite hot this afternoon being under all the sunshine, so find some shade here and there. Mostly clear skies lead us into Sunday, but with a bit more cloud cover and temps heating up towards 90 degrees. Enjoy this picture perfect weather for a picture perfect finish!
