124TH U.S. WOMEN'S AMATEUR SOUTHERN HILLS

USGA

AUGUST 4, 2024 - 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

I know this is going to come as a shock to everyone, but today is going to be hot. We are looking at clear skies this morning, but a few fluffy friends will make their way overhead by the lunch rush this afternoon. The clouds involvement will not be significant as temps are still expected to cross the century mark this afternoon. We will be looking at winds out of the south today, and speeds will start out in the 4 - 8 mph range and increase just slightly as we make our way into the early afternoon. Tuesday and Wednesday the heat isn't going anywhere as we are looking at highs in the low to mid 100s both afternoons. Winds will be out of the north and west heading into Wednesday night. Thursday again we are looking at a high in the 100s. Winds will be out the east at 5 - 10 mph at their peak. A cool front decides to mix it up with us giving us a slight chance of rain heading into Friday. Even with the front we are still looking at a high in the upper 90s. Saturday and Sunday do show signs of improvement as we are looking at highs in the low to mid 90s to round off this championship.
