

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 2024 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Today seems like a nice day on paper, as we have mostly dry conditions forecast. We will be on the brink of some shower chances throughout the day as they decay from the west, casting a mostly cloudy day. As we enter tonight, rain chances increase, and we should be wet by Tuesday morning. Shower chances then linger throughout the day on Tuesday, perhaps a tick up in intensity. Tuesday night through Wednesday lunchtime seems to be headache-worthy, adding to rainfall totals. The expected amounts reach into the 0.50 - 1.00" range for this week, perhaps exceeding this if a thunderstorm hits directly.
