

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2024 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Good news on the rainfall front, as a reduction is in order. The potential for showers appears highest through the mid-morning and into the early afternoon, with scattered cells dropping occasional bouts of moderate rain. This afternoon should provide a slight lull in the action. Tuesday night through Wednesday lunchtime is the timeframe of greatest concern now, adding more significant rain to the picture. The expected amounts reach into the 0.50 - 0.75" range for this week, perhaps exceeding this if a thunderstorm hits directly early on Wednesday. Thursday is showing a better picture altogether, with an extended period of limited precip.
