ABOUT MONTEREY PENINSULA COUNTRY CLUB

Sitting along the coastline of Pebble Beach, Calif., Monterey Peninsula Country Club was founded in 1926 and spans 400 acres of coastal forest. The club is home to two championship golf courses – the Dunes Course and the Shore Course. The Dunes Course was originally designed by Seth Raynor and later completed by Robert Hunter before the course was renovated by Rees Jones in 1998.

Previous USGA championships contested at Monterey Peninsula Country Club include the 1952 U.S. Girls' Junior, the 1958 U.S. Senior Amateur and the 1968 and 1976 U.S. Senior Women's Amateurs. The 2025 U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur will mark Monterey Peninsula's fifth USGA championship and its first in nearly 50 years.

QUALIFYING

Qualifying rounds, conducted over 18 holes, will be held at 28 sites in the U.S. and one site in Mexico between

Aug. 13 and Sept. 11.

CHAMPIONSHIP FIELD
A starting field of 132 players will compete in the U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur. Following 18-hole rounds of stroke play on Oct. 4-5, the field will be cut to the top 64 players for match play. Five 18-hole rounds of match play will determine the finalists, who will square off in an 18-hole championship match on Thursday, Oct. 9.

SCHEDULE OF PLAY
Practice rounds will take place Oct. 2-3, and the championship schedule is as follows:
Oct. 4 (Saturday): First round, stroke play
Oct. 5 (Sunday): Second round, stroke play
Oct. 6 (Monday): Round of 64, match play
Oct. 7 (Tuesday): Round of 32 and Round of 16, match play
Oct. 8 (Wednesday): Quarterfinal and semifinal rounds, match play
Oct. 9 (Thursday): 18-hole championship final, match play

ADMISSION
Admission is free. Tickets are not required for the U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur, and spectators are encouraged to attend.

2024 CHAMPIONSHIP
Hana Ryskova, 25, became the first player from Czechia (formerly Czech Republic) to win a USGA championship with her 5-and-4 victory over Lindsey Gahm, of Louisville, Ky., in the 18-hole final at Brae Burn Country Club, in West Newton, Mass. Ryskova played her collegiate golf at the University of Louisville, so there were Kentucky connections among the two finalists. Gahm played her collegiate golf at Louisiana State University. CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY
The U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur Championship originated in 1987 to provide a national competitive arena for female amateurs age 25 and older. In 2017, the USGA announced that the winner of the U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur will receive an exemption into the following year's U.S. Women's Open Championship. The U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur Trophy is a sterling Revere bowl. Mildred Prunaret, who was a member at Brae Burn and served as chairman of the USGA Women's Committee from 1959-63, presented it in 1987.

WHAT THE WINNER RECEIVES
- A gold medal
- Custody of the Mildred Prunaret Trophy for one year
- Exemption into the 2026 U.S. Women's Open Championship Presented by Ally at Riviera Country Club (must be an amateur)
- Exemption into the next 10 U.S. Women's Mid-Amateur Championships
- Exemption into the next two U.S. Women's Amateur Championships
- Exemption into the next two U.S. Senior Women's Amateur Championships (if age-eligible)
- Name engraved on the 2025 USGA Champions' plaque that will reside in the USGA Museum's Hall of Champions in Liberty Corner, N.J.
